At Home Instead we pride ourselves in ensuring all clients have a say in the service they receive, We do this by incorporating the following into our care Personal plans and care services support:

- · Initial Assessments
- · Individuality brief
- Risk Assessments
- Personal Preferences
- Client Support
- Welsh Language Active Offer
- Quality Assurance
- PEAQ Pursuing Excellence By Achieving Quality
- Home Instead Quality Assurance

Responsible Individual Quarterly Audit including direct reviews with service users.

Home Instead services are often commissioned directly through direct contact or a self managed basis rather than through a referral managed by Local authority adult social services, as such the company offer a more diverse selection of support within an inclusive tailored package of care to meet the individuals. Care call lengths are a standard 1 hour or longer and support with h ome help, house keeping, shopping, companionship and engag ement and are written into the care package just as extensively as support for personal care and medication support is written and detailed into the personal plan. To support families and clie nts we offer support on financial assistance and guidance in funding packages of care, this support includes advice on direct payments and attendance allowance.

In the first year of service Clients receive: -

Day 1 - Service review telephone call

2 weeks - Quality assurance visit

6 weeks- Service review quality check

3 months – Service review quality check

6 months - Service Review

9 months - Service review quality check

12 months - Service Review and a quality assurance telephone call.

Actions which are highlighted are actioned without delay to ensure a flexible quality service is experienced by all.

The Responsible individual carries out a documented audit of n ew client personal plans, Care professionals personnel files an d other aspects of the business every 3 months alongside this t hey also visit several clients every 3 months to complete service reviews and ensure direct feedback is received to the management.

An annual client survey is carried out independently. (PEAQ) H ome Instead welcomes all comments, concerns, complaints and compliments. Relationship Based Approach to care

We do this by knowing the individuals we support and building relationships to know what matters to them. Having a good working relationship enables clients to be open about their care provision, they talk openly about any positives or negatives they fee I about the care provided. The openness enables families to talk about the Care professionals as an extension of their family within our professional boundaries, ensuring we are providing the exceptional care we strive to achieve, having a professional but caring relationship opens avenues to work on personal goals in a way that barriers would not achieve.

Communication

Regular Newsletters to Care professionals and Clients/Families, guidance PowerPoints were created for Care professionals/ clients to keep themselves well and safe whilst providing/ being supported with care. The guidance covered topics such as PPEs afe disposal
